SOMEBODY DIDN'T COMMUNICATE

Somebody didn't communicate, in the Wilmington Police Department, last Saturday, and the lack of communication led to a couple of ludicrous situations.

There was a "potential riot", to quote the Woburn Times, in Woburn last Saturday, at the bewitching hour of midnight. About 400 Puerto Rican men and women filled Main Street, in Woburn Center, near Lucia's Market, when there were reports of threats from a North Woburn group, and Woburn Center was closed to all traffic, by the Police.

The Woburn Police called for the Tactical Squad, which was organized about a year ago, from 22 Police Departments in the area. About 100 police, riot trained and riot equipped, poured into Woburn, and included were the police dogs of Wilmington and Burlington.

All the incoming police had helmets and riot sticks, and other implements, and the organization, can be said to have had a good test in co-ordination, shortly after midnight, Saturday.

All the incoming police had helmets etc., - except Wilmington. The three men from Wilmington who reported were wearing "soft hats", i.e. their regular police hats.

Woburn was cleared of its potential riot, and everybody went home.

Act II

When the Wilmington Board of Selectmen arrived at the Town Hall, Monday night, there were eighteen policemen, some in uniform, some bearing picket signs, marching in a circle in front of the Town Hall. They were in a good mood, and obviously were enjoying themselves. Soon they were joined by more policemen until at about 8 p.m. there were as many as thirty police marching around in front of the Town Hall - some coming from as far away as Townsend and Melrose.

The police didn't describe their marching as picketing. They were "demonstrating". The point of their demonstration was that the three men who went to Woburn were not equipped with riot helmets and other riot gear.

The placards the police were carrying carried such slogans as "Fight Crime, Not Police" and "Helmets Save Headaches". With them was an official of the Massachusetts Police Organization, a Mr. Langone.

Later in the evening, about 10 p.m., the Police had their opportunity to talk with the Selectmen. Most of the talking was done by Mr. Langone, and some by the president of the Wilmington Policemen's Association, Sergeant Don Mercier.

The point of the discussion was that money had been transferred, last October, for the purchase of riot equipment, and if there was any it was locked up in the Chief of Police's office, and the Chief was in New Hampshire.

More money had been appropriated, they believed, and nothing done. Mr. Langone wanted answers, and he wanted them right away.

Several times during the discussion Selectman Jim Banda asked, in amazement, if any previous conversations had been held on the subject. The answer was no. Then Banda wanted to know "Why do you come to us? Have you talked with your superiors first?"

The police obviously hadn't. They wanted the answers, right away, just the same. They didn't get them - instead a promise that the Town Manager would look into the problem.

Act III

The problem was lack of communication. Chief of Police Paul J. Lynch was not in New Hampshire, as the Selectmen were told. He was at home - sleeping in his bed. And no one called him. Saturday night.

There are police in Wilmington who just don't talk to other cops.

The Police Are Smiling Too

Remember that Police Strike of a couple of weeks ago? It wasn't really a strike, it was just that the boys in blue didn't do any overtime work for a few days.

Well, it's all over, and everybody is smiling.

Sterling Morris, Town Manager, didn't believe that policemen should be driving cruisers for 16 hours, at a stretch. He ordered that there be no "back to back" shifts, at night, i.e. the four to midnight shift and the midnight to 8 a.m. shift.

The police didn't like this, because it interfered with their overtime work schedule.

Now the trouble is all over, and both sides are smiling. Cops may work from 4 p.m. to 8 a.m. - but they will do no driving, after midnight, in such a case. They can ride "side-saddle" - that is to be the second cop in a cruiser, or they may be the desk-sergeant, just so long as they don't drive a car.

Everybody wins, with that formula.

Get Those Tickets Delivered

A young and growing business is supposed to be hungry, and the owners are said to go out of their way to provide service. They have to do this, if they wish to attract new business, business which they need, of course.

The American Traveller, of Wilmington, provides a good story of this type.

Last week Lloyd Bender of that travel agency received news that a Wilmington resident, who lives not too far from the Wildwood School, had won two air-line tickets, as a prize. The tickets were for a vacation trip.

If these tickets were not delivered within a certain time limit the prize would automatically go to the second runner up, in the contest. If Lloyd was to collect his commission he had to deliver the tickets.

But the man had gone fishing. He was not in Wilmington. He was tuna fishing, somewhere.

Lloyd found out the name of the boat, and called the U.S. Coast Guard. Yes, they knew where it was, at least where it was at 8 a.m. It was anchored about five miles off Cape Ann, north of Gloucester.

Lloyd delivered those tickets. He drove to Essex County and got a boat, and he went out onto the briny. He found the boat, right where the Coast Guard said it was.

Has anyone else ever had tickets delivered, for an airplane flight, while he was tuna-fishing?

Lucky Kids Window Smashers Apologize

Two Wilmington youths, who shall remain anonymous for the purpose of this story, stopped in front of the Health, Wealth and Knowledge Store, in North Wilmington at 3 a.m. on Tuesday, and started on a window smashing spree. Before they had gone beyond two smashed windows one of the youths was suffering from a severely cut thumb.

Jim Winston, baker, who was working in his shop across the street, saw the window smashing episode and called the police. The police arrived in time to take the boy to the Choate Memorial Hospital, in Woburn, where several stitches were required to sew up the thumb.

One of the boys is the son of a high ranking official of Wilmington, and the other is related to a member of the Wilmington Police Department. Apologies were given, the first thing after the store opened, Tuesday morning, to Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Woods, owners.

JURORS DRAWN

Three residents had their names drawn, by the Board of Selectmen Monday night for Jury duty.

Cecil W. Patrick, of 145 Cunningham Street will serve on a Special Venire, starting on September 22, in Cambridge Superior Court.

Richard J. Gould, 18 Forrest Street, was drawn to serve in the Jury Pool at Cambridge, starting October 4.

Lawrence Flaherty, 6 Hobson Avenue, was drawn to serve in the Jury Pool, Lowell, starting October 4.

School System Guidance Counselor

There is to be a change in the Guidance Counselor system of the Wilmington Public Schools, starting on the day that school opens, September 8th.

One man, Dr. James Stewart of Needham, is to head up the entire school system.

Jim Stewart, Canadian born, got his BA from the University of British Columbia, and his MA and PhD from the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington.

He has twenty three years experience, about half of it spent in Canada and half in the U.S.

A Psychologist, Dr. Stewart will be the head of the 10 guidance counselors in the public schools, and he expects to work with them in a cooperative spirit. He hopes to see the counselors develop, he said, specialized areas of expertise.

Guidance Counseling will now start, in the Wilmington schools at the first grade, and continue through to High School graduation, with one unified objective - unified and qualified counseling for all students.

Superintendent of Schools Walter Pierce predicts that the entire Guidance Department is going to change, as a result of the employment of Dr. Stewart.

Sheldon Lyon has a Problem

Sheldon Lyon is a young 13 year old man, who lives on Marion Street, and he has a problem.

Last February Sheldon found a gold ring - an 18 karat gold ring. It has a diamond and obviously is of some value. Inside the ring are some initials.

Sheldon can't find the owner. He has consulted with the Chief of Police, and with others, but to no avail.

If somebody can prove who owns the ring by - say, describing the initials inside, he might be able to get it back - and Sheldon's problem would be solved.

President of Rotary Park

Henry Porter, retired Postmaster and second president of the Wilmington Rotary Club was elected the President of Wilmington Rotary Park yesterday.

In a short talk after his election, Mr. Porter promised a full and speedy finish to the problems of the Rotary Park, located opposite the Police Station. Mr. Porter hopes to convince others that the park should become the property of the Town of Wilmington.

try-outs will be held on September 9th and 10th.

All are urged to attend the meeting on Monday evening.

Industrial Expansion

Morris does some Telling--And gets Told

Sterling Morris, Town Manager of Wilmington, is a man who does not want to engage in public controversies. He avoids anything that smacks of politics, if he can.

The wisdom of Mr. Morris' approach to the town government is debatable. He doesn't want fights with politicians and one, at least, has been busy for months twisting his are in private sessions and executive sessions.

The remaining Selectmen do not like this but have said nothing. It seems they seek to have progressive government, but without the political implications that their confrere seems to display.

On Monday night Mr. Morris took a deep breath and then began to tell the visiting members of the Planning Board that they had better arrive at a solution to their 600 foot limit problem, on industrial ways. It was a subject that has not been openly discussed before.

The talk did clear a lot of air - and it also ended with Selectman George Boylen and Planning Board member Danny Gillis telling Morris that the Planning Board needs his assistance, and he should attend their meetings more often.

The public discussion lasted about fifteen minutes, and after the Selectmen's meeting had ended there was an executive session between Planning Board and Selectmen that lasted one and a quarter hours. Mrs. Madelyn McKie, now of the Finance Committee, but formerly of the Planning Board, was also in the executive session.

Mum you feel is due this property?

Zane Bower (Planning Board): Considering that there is a 4 to 5% grade into the back - in the winter the plowing situation in a high storm - there would be a vehicle that could plow - no fire truck could negotiate - no fireman would be strong enough to drag in hose.

Boylan: 5% grade? Any truck in town can do that!

Gillis: At the last meeting with the attorney he did not have the water straightened out, nor the Board of Health. He represented to us that the surrounding land owners had been contacted and would not cooperate. Mr. Hanlon and I, we sent out letters and found out that they had not been contacted.

"Let's not have a Merry Go Round" said Gillis - "Let's not have a newspaper tell us!"

Backman said that a "meeting of the minds would help".

Mr. Gillis went into the history of the Planning Board - how they worked on the DeCenso development, how in the Fordham Road development it was the Planning Board who demanded that there be an emergency exit, and "Mr. Rounds, Mrs. McKie and myself - spent two months in getting an exit through North Reading".

"I think we really have a good record!"

TM Morris wanted to know if the 600 foot regulation was a by-law. He was told it was a regulation.

Morris: I am afraid it will have a tremendous impact if we don't get some industrial expansion.

Boylan: The criticism should be not only for the Planning Board, but also the Selectmen and Water Board, and other boards. Wilmington is not a town that has a lot of money. We have low cost housing, but it costs us just as much as in other towns for police and fire protection, and such things.

The only way to balance this off is by increasing industry and the industrial tax. It is safe to assume that Wilmington will have a $60 tax rate next year.

We are not in the same position as we were five or ten years ago. Now the other towns are seeking industry.

Pretty soon something in this town has to give - Education - Pay for Town Employees. It is a problem.

Turning to the Town Manager, Boylen said: You as Town Manager should make something of this. You work here all day - they have to go out and make a living. They deserve to have information - through you. They need help to make decisions. And the Town Manager should also meet with the Water Commissioners about the extension of water to 125 Park, to encourage serious development!

Gillis: George is hitting the Key! The Town Manager - he is here all day - we have to make a living.

Wallace Motors New Protection Plan

Ralph Wallace, president of the Wallace Motors of Wilmington has said his company is to conform to the New Protection Plan for American Motors.

The plan was announced by the top executives of American Motors, in Boston, last week. Making the announcement were Roy D. Chapin, Jr., chairman, and William V. Luneburg, president.

The new Buyer Protection Plan was described by them as a "bold aggressive move which will result in increased sales for American Motors in 1972 and beyond. It commits the corporation to giving cost free repair of any factory defect on A.M.'s 1972 passenger cars for 12 months or 12,000 miles, including parts and labor required.

Free use of late model loaner cars for owners requiring overnight guaranteed repairs.

Certified dealer pre-delivery service, including a road test.

A toll-free direct Factory Hot Line, open to all 50 states including Hawaii and Alaska, plus Canada.

"Buyers of our 1972 cars will be guaranteed a full year or 12,000 miles of worry-free ownership during which, if anything goes wrong that is our fault, we'll fix it - at factory expense. Chapin and Luneburg said. "Owners will need only to pay for gas, oil, oil filter changes and normal maintenance during the guarantee period."

Under its Buyer Protection Plan American Motors will assume responsibility for the repair of any factory defect in 1972 Gremlin, Hornet, Javelin, Matador and Ambassador cars sold in the United States and Canada.

Wallace said that the company is now going beyond any program now in effect to provide an all-inclusive guarantee for customers, and its most important feature is that it eliminates any cause for contention or misunderstanding, between dealers and customers.

Previously, he said, responsibility was divided with the dealer responsible for some things and the factory responsible for others. This opened the way to argument. Under our plan the factory assumes that responsibility.

And, in the event that same day guarantee service cannot be supplied, there will be a "loaner" on hand, for the '72 owner, without charge.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

Sun. August 29th: Rev. Richard Norwood will be the guest speaker. He is director of the Christian Youth Center in Dorchester and is doing tremendous work with the young people there. The Center is one of our Church's mission projects.

VALLETTA: Kristen Marie, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Valletta of 25 Lexington Street on August 16th at Melrose-Wakefield Hospital.

Grandparents are Mrs. Benjamin Sullivan of 25 Lexington St., and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Valletta of 17 Lantern Road, Revere.

NOSEY NANCY

Send your announcements to Nancy Box 296, Wilmington or call 657-7141, and after five, 658-4985. If I'm not there, I'll call you.

So...Hello!...Thanks for turning off the oven...Isn't this fantastic weather. Makes this Gal think that she can lick the world!

The Don Sughrues and Archie went camping up to Lake George for their vacation and arrived home just as the card from Deedee caught up with me. "Hi Mrs.
Clark. We had a fine time on our vacation. It was great. The Morgans went with us. Those are friends. We're still here.
Deidre" Thanks, Dee for thinking of this girl while you were having such a great time in the woods... and believe me...wish I could have gone along...but it's good to have you home...Miss those comings and goings and that Re-lievio when you're away!

From Boot Camp at Great Lakes.
Dave Walsh writes: "Hi Nancy.
Having pretty decent time here at Boot Camp. Great Lakes Illinois.
Don't write. I won't get letters
yet. Tell everyone I said 'hello' especially the Selectmen! Bye now...David Walsh. Praise God." Glad to hear, Dave...Keep up the good work...As I told Gram... this will be it for you, am sure...
any way I...but those Lions had
the note...that Viewmaster kept
No. 3 entertained by the hour...
those pictures...and they do lots
of stuff like that like supply glasses
for kids that can't afford them,
etc...So Tony is not telling it all...So...let's get with it and help those boys to do their Thing...Right? That's my Group!
Knew you would!

Hey now...What a wingding those Sons of Italy put on last Saturday night...The weather was great, the music was great...and the steak that Josie supplied and Mr.
Wolley roasted was really of the melting quality...Guess due to the Democratic Cookout conflicting on date, the turnout wasn't as expected...but all those there had a fine time...We developed two new sets of friends...and thanks for all of those kind words
...that Kat from Washington Ave.
...you really made this Gal feel as though she was accomplishing something...with this column... something she often wonders about, cause it doesn't seem possible that she could have so much fun doing something and have it affect other people the way you say...Have you got your cup of coffee?...and then to Mrs. Pearce when the Clan was really at sixes and sevens and going in all directions...cause No. 1, 2, and 3 sons came in 2 1/2 years...and then No.

2 daughter 16 months after that, etc., etc., etc., and Ma was...
pregnant as usual, and taking No.
2 daughter to the MGH regularly ...and real estate business...
Egads...couldn't do it again
any way I...but those Lions had
the note...that Viewmaster kept
No. 3 entertained by the hour...
those pictures...and they do lots
of stuff like that like supply glasses
for kids that can't afford them,
etc...So Tony is not telling it all...So...let's get with it

.....Thank you for your flattery this week...and perhaps will try that book someday...We certainly are complimented that you think this Chick has that kind of talent and that vote of confidence is much appreciated!

By the way, there Jerry...hear that bubbler in the athletic field still doesn't give with any water... and it's a long hard hot scrimmage the football players tell me
.....Can't you and Fred Jaeschke get together? What about a hose?

Hey, what's with it...The Big Box in Carolina or something?
.....Well...a good idea, isn't it?

Now...back at the Hut...Things are really humming, as usual...
Warned you...Don't come in ones or two - In that Group, everything happens at once...Anyway we trust after the first week in September things should start to settle down...Meanwhile, the Girls in the Clan are taking five days vacation next week...like Monday through Friday...and going to see Nana down on our Isle of Tranquility...So, please call me on Thursday or Friday if you have something you want in next week's column...that's 657-7141...and if you don't reach me...give the message to Mary...
...that fantastic telephone-answering Gal...Talk about versatility!
That girl really has it. My bankers from Boston want to know if they can hire her for their phones...That really must mean she's good!...So...put your thinking caps on immediately...huh...

Good!

Enjoy this peaceful week...See you all when we get back...
meanwhile.....

Love ya!

Letter

Dear Judy:
Regarding your letter in the Town Crier, asking about the street named for my brother, Radioman 1st Class William E. Butterworth.
I was sure glad to know somebody other than myself had an interest in the first boy from Wilmington to give his life in World War II.

Judy, I have been told that the American Legion has taken this matter in hand, and have had a plaque made up, which is to be placed at the junction of Federal and Concord Streets, to be called the William E. Butterworth Park.
I have been told that it was thought of too late to be dedicated on Memorial Day, but the Legion will do this on Veterans Day.

Thank you
David (Rusty) Butterworth

(From Front Page)

Gillis was asked what was the matter with the Stevens development in South Wilmington (off Eames Street, where a road has not been built, Ed.)

Gillis: I am glad you brought that up! It is a short street, and we wanted a short connection to Woburn Street. He had a chance to settle it in 30 minutes one night - he was absolutely stubborn - that's a good case!

Bower: We indicated an alternative solution to the developer - it has been postponed and hurried all over the place. In my opinion there is plenty of industrial area available - this has been going on for two years - if he was so desperate he would have taken the alternative - and nothing is being done about a water loop to Andover Street.

Miceli: We don't have a stampede to get industrial growth.

Boyle: The only resource the town has is water.

Miceli: I disagree. If we are going to give away water to satisfy a developer - see an attorney.

Banda: $200,000 to put water up Andover Street - who is kidding who?

Gillis took a few minutes to tell of the Mass. Federation of Planning Board position - pro 600 feet.

Grant said there had been no requests before the Planning Board for the last two meetings - and none now.

Chairman Backman read reports on industrial and residential growth from a publication having to do with Route 128. He quoted 28% and residential increases of 43%.

Grant: They are talking about building going on which was planned several years ago. A lot of those buildings are vacant. I see them at Hanscom Field, and at Fresh Pond Parkway.

Boyle returned to the question of water: he disagreed with Banda on the question of water costs. He rather felt like Danny Gillis, he said, believed the Selectmen should get involved in all parts of the government. "maybe I didn't know the Planning Board is as sensible as they say they are"

CLASSES FOR EXPECTANT PARENTS

Winchester Hospital announces the offering of a series of classes for expectant parents. The classes will be held at the Hospital on Monday nights, beginning September 13, from 7:30 to 9:30.

The course is designed to bring the all-important event of parenthood into a family-centered perspective for both parents. The sessions will be conducted by Mrs. Carol Butt, R.N., on the nursing staff at Winchester Hospital and will include lectures by an Obstetrician and a Pediatrician from the medical staff.

Classes will be open without charge to all interested expectant parents. Those desiring to attend must register in advance by calling the Hospital (729-9000, Ext. 364) weekdays between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

RETURNS FROM DAM NECK

Marine Pfc. David W. MacCallum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. MacCallum Sr., of 1 Cobalt St., has just returned from a training mission at Dam Neck, Va. with his unit where they participated in a live firing exercise of the Hawk anti-aircraft missile.

Pfc. MacCallum is serving with the Third Light Anti-Aircraft Missile Battalion, Second Marine Air Wing, Cherry Point, N.C.

DIAMOND CRYSTAL HAS NEW PLANT MANAGER

Mr. Goldman, a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute joined Diamond Crystal in 1968 and has had broad experience in Industrial Engineering and the management of several production and control areas of the business. Originally from Hull, he now resides in Burlington with his wife and daughter.

JOSEPH GORHAM ON STAFF AT SHAWSEEN TECH.

Kenneth L. Buffum, Chairman of the School Committee at Shawsean Tech., recently announced that Joseph F. Gorham, a resident of Buckland has been appointed Assistant Superintendent-Director of the school.

A graduate of a vocational course in printing from Roxbury Memorial High School, Mr. Gorman received a B.S. degree in vocational education from Fitchburg State College and his masters degree in Administration of Occupational Education from Westfield State College. He has practical experience in the printing field and in the early fifties was printing plant superintendent for the Massachusetts Envelope Company.

A veteran of the Marine Corps, he worked on a foreign project through the United Nations in Malaysia.

A long-time resident of Buckland, located near Greenfield, Mr. Gorman is an elected member of the Buckland Board of Assessors, and is a member of that town's Planning Board.

Married, and the father of two children, Mr. Gorman and his wife Louise plan to locate in this area in the very near future.

ROBERT JOHNSON, MEMBER 600TH PHOTO SQUADRON

Sergeant Robert A. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Johnson of 16 Dewey Ave., is a member of the 600th Photographic Squadron that has been cited for heroic and outstanding performance while documenting the Vietnam War.

The squadron, which operates throughout the Southeast Asia, had received the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award with special "V" device for valor in combat.

Squadron personnel were recognized for risking their lives during a two-year period to photograph enemy and allied combat operations.

Highlight of their achievements included filming battle damage at night through the use of special observation devices, obtaining the only motion picture coverage of the seizure of Dak Pek and Dak Seang special forces camps in the spring of 1970, and documenting the May 1970 Cambodian operation - including the evacuation of refugees - both from the air and on the ground.

Sergeant Johnson is a photographic equipment repairman with a unit of the 600th at Korat Royal Thai AFB, Thailand. He will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the squadron.

The sergeant, a 1968 graduate of Wilmington High School, attended the University of Nevada and the University of Maryland Far East Division.

His wife is the former Prajaub Phoutkratook from Thailand.

AN OLD PROBLEM IN A NEW SETTING: A century and a quarter ago the Town Meeting made a final and-for-all decision on what would and what would not be roads, in Wilmington. One of the roads that was voted out, in 1845, ran from Chestnut Street through woods and fields to Marion Street.

The Miller family of Wilmington bought land there years ago, and have lived there for generations, until a few years past, when, following a death, they lived elsewhere. Their home burned down, and now they seek to rebuild, but cannot, because there is no road, nor no described right-of-way.

They brought their problem to the Planning Board, Tuesday night, and were told how to put in an acceptable Right of Way. Seated at the table are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller. At right are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cole, and a neighbor, Miss Cleo O'Brien. In back are the Lombard family, and more Millers. All are related except Miss O'Brien.

Volunteer Clean Up
of Silver Lake

PAUL BRADLEY AND RANDY SKILUNG: Both of Troop 56 Boy Scouts, clean up the lake front. The boy on the raft is finding trash under the water. He is Mark Smith, also of Troop 56.

Traffic signs, and beer cans. Auto exhaust pipes and dead cats. You name it. All were taken out of Silver Lake, along Main Street, yesterday morning by a group of volunteer Clean Ups.

Mrs. Diane Dunlop of 28 Williams Avenue got tired of seeing the trash in the lake, from the sidewalk opposite the Silver Lake Pharmacy, and she organized the clean-up party.

Boy Scouts and others volunteered, including Mrs. Dunlop's husband Pat. All started work at 10 a.m. yesterday, and by noon-time there was a sizeable collection of trash for the town to take away. Two of the volunteers who joined in at the last moment were Michael Craft, 7, of Glen Road, and Tommy Andreas, a Scout from Troop 58, who lives on Williams Ave.

If interested call Jack Cushing (658-6655) or at Sweetheart Plastic, 658-9100, Ext. 370. Paul Currier (933-3995) or Dennis DeMaggio (658-5737).

There are various rules for selecting the length of a screw. Plain common sense is as good a guide as any.

You, for one thing, do not want a screw so long it goes all the way through the two parts being fastened and then sticks out the other side. And if you choose a screw that is too short, the threaded part will not get a good hold.

So, pick a screw with an unthreaded shank just long enough to reach through the top board - so that all of the threaded part goes into the bottom board.

Selecting the proper building supplies, tools and hardware is simple if you shop at Sweeney Home Courtesy Center, 615 Main St., 658-2051. Helpful Hint: If you are in doubt about the correct diameter of a screw, choose the thinner one to avoid problems with splitting.
